Remember the dates and remember that during this sale goods will not be sold on credit or on approval.

The reductions on regular stock follow.

FEW VOTES TO SPARE

House Adopts Conferees' Report by Majority of Only 12.

Twenty Republicans Voted Against the Report and Two Democrats, Both From Louisiana, Voted For Adoption—Previously a Tactical Motion by Mr. Payne to Recommit Was Defeated by Five Votes.

The tariff conferees' report was adopted by the house Saturday night by the narrow margin of twelve votes, after an eleven-hour session of speech-making in sweltering and oppressive heat.

Twenty Republicans voted against adopting the report and two Democrats, Broussard and Estopinal, both of Louisiana, voted for adoption.

The Republicans voting against the report were: Carey and Davis (Minn.); Gronna (N. D.); Hanger and Hubbard (Ia.); Koller (O.); Kendall (Ia.); Leavitt (Wis.); Linbergh (Minn.); Mann (Ill.); Miller (Minn.); Murdock (Kan.); Nelson (Wis.); Nye (Minn.); Poindexter (Wash.); Southwick (N. Y.); Stenerson (Minn.); Stevens (Minn.); Volstead (Minn.) and Woods (Ia.).

Loud applause from the Republicans marked the announcement of the result of the vote, and Chairman Payne was immediately surrounded by congratulatory friends.

The vote on the adoption of the report followed a vote on a motion by Mr. Payne to recommit the report. This was defeated by the narrow margin of five votes, the rollcall standing, says 191, ayes 189.

DELAY IN THE SENATE

Many Members Object to Way Leather Schedule Was Made Up.

Washington, Aug. 3.—Beginning its consideration of the conference report on the tariff bill by a tedious reading of that document, which was insisted upon by senators who proposed to see that undue haste is not exercised in the final passage of the measure, the senate dragged along during nearly seven hours without accomplishing any important result.

JOHNSON'S $1,000 BILL

Could Not Be Changed at Police Station When He Had to Put Up $25.

Jack Johnson, the heavyweight pugilist champion, was arrested at Detroit by a motorcycle policeman on a charge of exceeding the speed limit with his automobile.

The pugilist was escorted to the Central police station, where he was required to deposit a $25 guaranty for his appearance in court in the morning.

The pugilist produced a $1,000 bill which the officers at the station could not change and an officer accompanied Johnson to the factory of a local automobile company where the requisite $25 was procured and the pugilist liberated.

Situation in Spain.

Although the situation is less threatening in Spain, the next few days should bring news of significant political developments. As was anticipated, the biggest news of the Spanish Moroccan war developed within Spain proper, where under cover of a protest against the war malcontents seized the opportunity to kill and pillage.

With the enforced submission of the revolutionists, American interest now will be chiefly concerned with the determination of whether the Republicans, Socialists, Carlists, Anticlericals or Anarchists organized the recent disorders.

Does Not Intend to Leave Nebraska.

William J. Bryan, on his arrival at Chicago last Thursday from Bellefontaine, O., positively denied a statement attributed to him there that he intended to make his home in Texas.

CONDUCT IN ASYLUM

Dr. Baker Described Thaw's Acts as Silly and Pompous.

Dr. Baker's Testimony Was Read From His Case Book and Described Thaw's Conduct, Both Normal and Queer, on Many Occasions From Feb. 1, 1908, the Date of His Commitment, Until June 25 of the Present Year.

White Plains, Aug. 3.—How Harry K. Thaw conducted himself at the Matteawan asylum for the criminal insane, a phase of his life not gone into before, was described by Dr. Amos B. Baker, first assistant physician of the institution, the only witness called by District Attorney Jerome at the continuation of the hearing by which Thaw hopes to obtain his release.

As part of his testimony, a two-foot stack of canvas-bound books, labelled "The People vs. Harry K. Thaw"—records of the murder trials—furnished all the evidence introduced by Mr. Jerome.

Mother's Testimony Used Against Him. Mrs. Mary Copley Thaw, as she sat in court, saw Mr. Jerome introduce against her son testimony she had willingly given heretofore to save his life.

It was seized upon by the state to prove him insane. It included her accounts of his nervous temperament as a child, materially valuable to Thaw when he was in danger of the electric chair but now menacing to his hope of proving himself a sane man.

One thing quoted by the district attorney was her statement concerning Harry Thaw, "that his body was too puny for his head, and before and after the measles he had St. Vitus' dance."

Dr. Baker's testimony was read by himself from his "case book" and described Thaw's conduct, both normal and queer, on many occasions from Feb. 1, 1908, the date of his commitment, until June 25 of the present year.

WRIGHTS MEET ALL TESTS

Their Aeroplane Carried a Passenger In 10-Mile Cross-Country Flight.

Orville Wright last week attained the zenith of hard-earned success. In a ten-mile cross-country flight in the aeroplane built by himself and his elder brother, Wilbur, and accompanied by Lieutenant Benjamin D. Foulois, an intrepid officer of the army signal corps, he not only surpassed the speed requirements of his contract with the United States government but accomplished the most difficult and daring flight ever planned for a heavier-than-air flying machine.

Incidentally, he broke all speed records over a measured course. Wright's speed was more than 42 miles an hour. He made the ten-mile flight in 14 minutes and 42 seconds, including more than twenty seconds required for the turn beyond the line at Shuter hill, the southern end of the course.

He attained a height in crossing the valley of Four Mile run of nearly 500 feet, and the average altitude of his practically level course was about 200 feet.

Like a giant bird the machine swept unswervingly straight to the south, passing over the diverse and heavily wooded country in the distance until it became a mere speck above the horizon.

Those who had glasses saw the aeroplane turn, first to the left, then to the right, above Shuter hill. Suddenly the speck was lost to view, and as the seconds passed, a silence grew upon the crowd, a silence that spoke of deep concern.

Wilbur Wright, standing with levelled glasses beside his sister, strained his gaze in effort to catch sight of the aeroplane when it should rise again above the sky line. Seconds seemed minutes, and as the interval became seemingly alarming, his agitation was evident.

Suddenly the speck came in sight again, over the distant hill. A cry swept over the watching crowd. "There it is," everybody said and the sigh of relief was plainly audible.

SUICIDE BY DROWNING.

Rochester, Aug. 3.—Because her parents had banished her from home, Julia Yost, 23 years old, went to Genesee valley park and committed suicide by drowning.

The girl hired three Italian boys to row her up the river. After proceeding about two miles, she arose from her seat and leaped overboard. The body has not been recovered.

POLICE MACHINE TURNS TURTLE, CRUSHING VICTIM ON SIDEWALK.

Reading, Pa., Aug. 3.—Miss Lydia Denhard, aged 39 years, died in a hospital here from injuries received Sunday night when an electric automobile driven by Police Sergeant Marion F. Cressman turned turtle.

Cressman was assisting in inspecting the fire alarm system, when the machine got beyond his control and dashed into an iron post, overturning on Miss Denhard, who was on the sidewalk.

WOMAN SUPERINTENDENT

Mrs. Ella Flagg Young Appointed Head of Chicago's School System.

The superintendency of Chicago's great school system has been given into the hands of a woman for the first time in its history. Mrs. Ella Flagg Young, principal of the Chicago normal school, and an educator of national reputation, was chosen by the newly organized board of education as head of the public schools.

Mrs. Young's selection followed a struggle for the office which has been going on since the resignation of Edward G. Cooley several months ago. Many educators from other cities have been urged by their friends for the position, but the board decided to appoint a Chicago man or woman.

Mrs. Young is 64 years old and was born in Buffalo, N. Y. She has been teaching since 1862. She was district superintendent of schools for Chicago from 1867 to 1899 and professor of education at the University of Chicago from 1899 to 1905. She is the author of several books on educational subjects.

$100,000 IN SECURITIES

Found Hidden in House of an Eccentric Maiden Recluse.

More than $100,000 securities, bank notes and gold, has been found hidden in the house of Miss Elizabeth Diefendorf, the eccentric recluse who died at Fort Plain, N. Y., on Saturday of last week, leaving an estate estimated to be worth $1,000,000.

The rear yard is to be plowed and the house torn down if further search promises returns. Many of the bonds found had run to maturity but still lay untouched under a loose board, or tucked beneath a carpet or sewed into the lining of a dress that had not been worn for years.

SUBSTITUTES FOR BUTTER

Signs Must Be Prominently Displayed Where Oleomargarine is Used.

"Oleomargarine used here" must be printed plainly and conspicuously on all bills-of-fare in those restaurants throughout the state which serve it as substitute for butter. Lunch carts, boarding houses and other eating places which do not rise to the dignity of a menu card, must post signs in places where they can be easily seen and read, which shall bear the words "Oleomargarine used here" in letters at least two inches in length and so printed as to be easily read by the boarders.

This is by order of the state commissioner of agriculture who is enforcing a new law. Violation of the commissioner's order is punishable by fine and imprisonment.
